Johnny DC says:

LET THE MAIL BEGIN!

Dear Editor

CODENAME: KIDS NEXT DOOR aren't usually my favorite characters, but CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY #12's spelling bee story was way above average. I noticed The Delightful Children From Down The Lane weren't in the story and maybe that's why. The KND are so busy fighting wars, we don't get to really KNOW these kids. There was a lack of outrageous gimmicks (or outrageous MECHANICAL ones anyway) and the focus was more on the kids. Also, spelling bees (not to mention report cards) make even super kids nervous.

I should'a suspected something about a kid who wears winter clothes in summer.

It was a grate...I mean great...story.

Charles D. Brown
Brentwood, New York

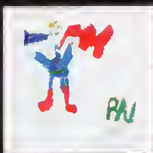

We're happy that the talented KDN creator, Mr. Warburton writes most of the KIDS NEXT DOOR stories in BLOCK PARTY. The KIDS should get nervous at a spelling bee. Look at how they spell N-U-M-B-U-H!
— Johnny DC

* BLOCK PARTY ART GALLERY ****

Dear Johnny DC,

I made my own superhero. His name is Power Boy. He has all the powers in the world. He can turn into Power Boy by saying "Hero."

Nathaniel Billings, age 8
Springfield, Virginia

[DRAWING BY NATHANIEL BILLINGS]

Dear Johnny DC,

I made my own superhero; her name is Cybergirl. Her powers are going into computers, shooting electricity through her eyes, force fields, and invisibility.

Chanel Billings, age 12
Springfield, Virginia

[DRAWING BY CHANEL BILLINGS]

Amazing! Two drawings from Springfield, sent by a boy and a girl named "Billings." It must be a coincidence.
— Johnny DC

The next two drawings are from Alex from San Diego. His characters are Gunner and his partner, Dead-Eye. Did you know that Dead-Eye can sense things six miles from wherever he lands?

[DRAWING "GUNNER" BY ALEX]

[DRAWING "DEAD-EYE" BY ALEX]

POWERPUFF SURPRISE

The POWERPUFF GIRLS will be joining the CARTOON NETWORK BLOCK PARTY in just a few months! To get in the mood, here are a couple of letters and drawings sent to them...

Dear Powerpuff Girls,

I love the PPG. The one I like most is Buttercup. I have all the issues since the very first one. I'm 10 years old and living in Denmark.

Jeannie Dines Mikkelsen, age 10
Denmark

It's cool to hear from other countries, Jeannie. I hope you got issues #69 and #70, because then you'd have a complete set!

— Johnny DC

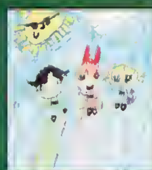

Dear Powerpuff Girls,

I have been a fan for three years. I always wanted to be just like Blossom. She is so smart and so strong. "Hi, Blossom!"

And I think Bubbles is cute. I'm your biggest fan. And Buttercup is cool!

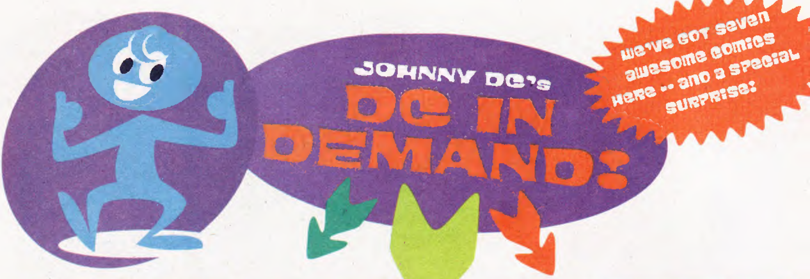

Sarah Campbell, age 10
Milton, Florida

Are you having a little trouble making up your mind, Sarah?
